Three Old Man

The recipe for this vodka was developed by the company's technologists together with the All-Russian Scientific Research Institute of Food Biotechnology. For its preparation we combine activated carbon filtration with additional processing with milk filtration. Milk has the ability to neutralize harmful impurities and the drink becomes a special shine and soft taste. There are very few vodkas with a milk purification on the market, and even less in the «Three Old Men Lux» vodka price category.

Ingredients: specially prepared drinking water, rectified ethyl alcohol «Lux» from food raw materials, spirited rice infusion, sugar syrup.
